Fountain Square District

The Fountain Square District is envisioned as a District of high value retail and residential uses anchored by the heart of the city, Fountain Square. Having recently been overhauled from the garage to the plaza, Fountain Square has been transformed into a vibrant destination drawing Cincinnatians into downtown to shop, play, and sample the host of new restaurants opening within the months to come. By hosting a full calendar of events (visit www.myfountainsquare.com for listing of events), residents and visitors alike will have unlimited reasons to return to the District as their destination for fun.

Since the commencement of the Fountain Square project, approximately $88 million in property investment has been infused into the Fountain Square District with several recently completed renovations and others in the midst of construction.
