The former Fourth National Bank Building underwent a restoration that included 21 loft-style condominium units, commercial space, a rooftop terrace, and direct access to parking. The project helps re-established a historically significant building and promotes homeownership prospects in the Central Business District. In addition, Eighteenth East Fourth St. is centrally located within two blocks from the Fountain Square and the Red's Great American Ball Park. For more information and potential ownership opportunities, please visit Comey & Sheperd Realtors but act fast, only 2 units remain!

The Cincinnati Equity Fund contributed to the construction financing for this project.
