Government Square

Fifth Street between Vine and Walnut

Government Square is Metro's primary downtown transit hub, located on Fifth Street between Walnut and Main, directly southeast of Fountain Square. Government Square was opened on August 18, 2006 and is now utilized by over 15,000 people each work day. The redesigned Government Square includes upgraded passenger shelters, a new Fifth Street sidewalk, landscaping improvements, attractive design, public art, and free wireless internet service. The new Government Square provides improved safety, enhanced accessibility, and allows for improved traffic flow.
